First phase of Apostolic Visitation begins with invitation to superiors general

HAMDEN, Conn.—The first phase of the Apostolic Visitation has begun with an appeal to leaders of U.S. women religious from Cardinal Franc Rodé, C.M.

In a letter to superiors general with a generalate, provincialate or center of initial formation in the United States, Cardinal Rodé, Prefect of the Congregation for Institutes of Consecrated Life and Societies of Apostolic Life, invited their observations, hopes and concerns to be presented to Mother Mary Clare Millea, A.S.C.J., Apostolic Visitor.

These comments may be offered personally or in writing throughout the course of the Apostolic Visitation. The next phase of the process, expected to begin in the second half of the calendar year, will include an objective questionnaire to all major superiors in the United States.

For more information about the initial phase, or if a letter is not received, superiors general may contact the Apostolic Visitation office at 203-287-5467 or info@apostolicvisitation.org.
